

A PURE GRAPE CREAM OF TARTAR POWDER

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Highest Honors, World's Fair
Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair
Avoid Baking Powders containing alum. They are injurious to health

MISCELLANEOUS MELANGE.

[From Saturday's Daily.]

Mrs. Geo. Stier went to Kansas City this morning.

Mr. Zach Wright, of Tonganoxie, Kansas, arrived in Lexington last night.

Mr. Chas. Barron, of Barron & Nagel, returned this morning from Kansas City.

Mrs. Emma Schofield and Mrs. Dave Callahan returned last night from Kansas City.

Mr. Byron Bourn, of Joplin, spent yesterday with friends in our city and returned yesterday evening.

Mr. W. G. Musgrove, after a couple of days' visit with relatives here, returned yesterday evening to Kansas City.

Mr. Al Weber, who has been visiting the home folks here for a short time, went to Kansas City yesterday evening.

The transfer company keeps a call book at the Mammoth livery stable and one at the Grand Central hotel. Leave orders at these places.

Rev. Z. M. Williams, president of Central Female college, returned yesterday evening from a trip on the north side of the river.

Mrs. Frances Wilson Baker, of St. Louis, who was called here upon the death of Mr. G. C. Alexander, returned home this morning.

Mr. L. F. Bacon, of Kansas City, passenger agent of the Santa Fe railroad, is in the city today looking after the interests of his road.

The steam riding gallery arrived here yesterday evening from Hardin, Mo., and is being set up on the vacant lot east of Long's hotel.

FOR SALE—I have for sale a good paying business, about two thousand cash required. For full particulars call on F. Lee Wallace, agent, Lexington, Mo. 4-27

Mrs. A. W. Lamborn and Mrs. Ed. Barnett went to Kansas City this morning, where Mrs. Lamborn will spend some time visiting Mrs. Barnett.

Mr. John Duling left yesterday evening for Topeka, Kas., and from there he will probably go to El Reno, Ok., and to several points in the new country.

Master Limrick Chancellor, who has been visiting relatives in our city, left this morning for Wellington to visit his uncle, Mr. Jas. Emerson, near there.

Mrs. H. L. McDonald, of St. Joe, who has been visiting for several weeks the family of her father, the Hon. H. C. Wallace, returned home this morning.

Mr. Chas. Williams and wife (nee Anna Maud Tevis) arrived last night from Denver for a visit with the family of Mrs. Williams' father, Mr. D. W. B. Tevis.

Mr. J. A. Roark, superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Ins. Co. at this place, left last night for a visit at Booneville, Mo., and at his old home at New Franklin, Mo.

Mr. James Moorehead returned yesterday evening from Fulton, Mo., and he was accompanied by his two little sons, James R., Jr., and Wingate, who have been visiting in Fulton.

Thos. H. Wagner, of Memphis, Mo., was appointed yesterday by Governor Dockery as superintendent of insurance for Missouri. Mr. Ed. T. Orear, the present superintendent, will retire August 1st.

Mr. Carl Hays left this morning for Pueblo, Col., to join his wife, who has been visiting there for some time. They will go from there in a few days to Manitau to spend the balance of the summer.

There is no longer any excuse for anyone to endure the torture inflicted by piles when Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment will cure them, a remedy so moderate in price and so effective. Price, 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. For sale by Censhaw & Young. 7-6ml

Mr. D. A. Slusher was helping to stretch some wire Thursday in building a fence when a post broke and flew back and struck him on the head and neck and knocked him down, rendering him unconscious for a short time. He has been confined to the house most of the time since, but is getting all right again.

Mrs. Lizzie Spurgeon died yesterday at Buffalo, Wyoming, where she has been for the past four years for her health. The remains will pass through here tomorrow night en route to Sweet Springs, where she formerly lived. Mrs. Edgar Spurgeon (nee Fannie Drysdale) and Miss Anna Worthington will go from here on the train bearing the remains.

Died at McAlester Springs yesterday Mr. Gus E. Becker, aged 40 years, 11 months and 3 days. The funeral will take place at the Christian church at Higginsville tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. L. H. Otto officiating. Mr. Becker was the son of Mr. Fred Becker, of our city, and has been conducting a barber shop in Higginsville. He worked in his shop Saturday night and only went to the springs Monday morning for his health, which has been very poor for some time. He leaves a wife and a little adopted daughter to mourn his loss. The INTELLIGENCER extends its sympathy to his bereaved relatives in their sad misfortune.

[From Monday's Daily.]

Mrs. John Duvall spent Sunday here visiting friends.

Mr. J. G. Fisher went to Kansas City yesterday morning.

Mr. Robert Ardinger returned last night from Fort Sill, I. T.

Mr. Ed. Ludwigs spent Sunday here with his father's family.

Mr. M. T. Slusher and son, Mr. Leslie Slusher, leave this evening for El Reno, Ok.

Mr. Ernest Graendorf, of Kansas City, spent Sunday here with his mother's family.

Mr. Claude Coon spent Sunday in our city visiting his parents at the Commercial hotel.

Mr. Wm. Wernwag arrived yesterday morning for a few days lay off from his mail run.

Miss Allie Eagle returned last night from a brief visit with relatives in Kansas City.

Prof. R. N. Cook and wife returned last night from a trip to Colorado Springs and Denver.

Mr. Geo. S. Wilson will leave this evening for Fon du Lac, Wis., and other points in the north.

Mr. U. S. Cundy, of St. Louis, spent the day here yesterday, the guest of Mr. John Gordon.

Mr. Fred Kohlman came down yesterday from Kansas City to spend Sunday here with relatives.

Mrs. Albert Rechle, of Leadville, Col., came in Saturday night for a visit with Mrs. John E. Quandt.

Mr. Chas. Bohannon, of Richmond, probate clerk of Ray county, spent yesterday with friends in our city.

Mr. Con Barron left yesterday for Kansas City, and from there he will probably go to the Oklahoma country.

Mr. Kurt Wendt and wife, of Kansas City, came down Sunday morning to spend the day with relatives and friends.

Mr. Chris Kist and wife came down from Kansas City Saturday night for a visit with relatives in our city.

Miss Florence Hall went to Kansas City Saturday evening to spend a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. Brannock.

Misses Ola and Esther Foster and Master Arthur Foster went to Higginsville yesterday to visit their grandmother.

Mr. A. R. Dickinson went to Marshall yesterday evening to attend to the shipment of some walnut logs from that place.

Mr. Richard Stalling, of Kansas City, came down Saturday night to visit his father's family and returned yesterday evening.

Mr. Geo. C. McFarland, editor of the White Hall Register, of Whitehall, Ill., spent yesterday visiting friends in our city.

Misses Rose Graendorf and Minnie King left yesterday evening for a visit of about two weeks at Kansas City and Leavenworth.

Mr. Horace Bolton, of Atchison, Kas., came down last night to visit relatives in our city and take a vacation of about ten days.

Mr. Oscar Andreen and daughter, Miss Mary Andreen, returned this morning from Buffalo and other points in the east and north.

Mr. Stewart Summers was overcome by the heat Saturday afternoon and was very sick yesterday, but he is reported better this morning.

Mrs. S. L. Benson and two children, who have been visiting Mrs. Theodosia Hix for several days, left this morning for Georgetown, Ky.

HOME MONEY TO LOAN.—On good real estate security. In sums of $500 and up, at 7 per cent. No commission, no red tape. Apply to J. Q. Plattenburg. 11

Married yesterday at 9 o'clock a. m. by Probate Judge Chinn at his office, Mr. Giovanni Gecunviani and Miss Delphina Vighlettee, both of Lexington.

Mrs. Wm. Palmer and children went to Kansas City Saturday evening to visit Mr. Palmer's mother and Mr. Palmer went to the city yesterday morning.

Church of Christ Scientist, Sunday services as follows: 10:30 a. m., Sunday school 11:30 a. m., at Knights of Pythias hall. All are cordially invited. 11

Messrs. Dave Thornton and Leslie Slusher and Misses Matta Powell and Bessie Atkinson spent yesterday visiting at the country home of Mr. M. T. Slusher.

Mr. Ed. Taubman went to Kansas City Saturday evening to meet his wife, who has been visiting her father's family for several weeks at Longton, Kas.

Mr. Wm. Chiles and wife and son, Henry, returned yesterday morning from Buffalo, N. Y., where they have been attending the Pan-American exposition.

Mr. Peter Mallott and son, Mr. Harry Mallott, went to Wellington yesterday to visit relatives. Mr. Harry Mallott will leave in a few days for Chicago.

Cattle shipments are being rushed from this point. Saturday night Mr. W. P. Aull shipped four cars of cattle and one car of hogs from Lexington and two cars of cattle from Page City. Last night seven cars of cattle were sent out from this point.

Several good farms for rent. Apply to J. Q. Plattenburg 2-1041.

Miss Eugenia Ardinger returned last night from Kansas City, where she has been visiting relatives. She was accompanied by Miss Julia Minter of Kansas City.

Mr. Scott Cromwell, of Kansas City, who has been visiting relatives in our city, went to Sweet Springs last night to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lizzie Spurgeon.

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred shorthorn bulls and heifers for sale. Apply at my farm, 8 mile east of Lexington, on the Salt Pond road, or apply to me at Higginsville. N. M. COOPER. 4-2711

Mr. Chris Walk went to Kansas City on business today. He was accompanied by his little daughter, Miss Bertha Walk, who goes to visit her uncle, Mr. Siegel Hainkel.

Mr. Fred Becker, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Flora Becker, and his son, Mr. Wm. Becker, were in Higginsville yesterday to attend the funeral of Mr. Gus Becker, who died last Friday.

Mr. Luther Nickle came in yesterday morning from Fulton to visit his mother and sister at Nickell Home. He was accompanied by his little niece, Miss Mary Hughes McCue, from Fulton.

Mr. Wm. Bandon came down from Kansas City Saturday night to visit relatives. He was accompanied home yesterday evening by his wife and baby, who have been visiting here for several weeks.

Mrs. Edgar Spurgeon, who has been here several days visiting the family of her father, Mr. S. I. Drysdale, left yesterday morning for her home at Sweet Springs. She was accompanied by Miss Anna Worthington.

In accordance with the proclamation of Governor Dockery the churches in this city had special services in the morning to pray for rain and at night all the churches united in union services at the Methodist church.

Herbine clears the complexion, gives buoyancy to the mind, cures headache, regulates the stomach and bowels, stimulates the liver, and is, in fact, a perfect guardian of the health. Price 50 cents. For sale by Censhaw & Young. 7-6ml

In an altercation on the corner of Main and Tenth streets late Saturday night Will Hardin, a negro man, knocked his wife against the big plate glass in the front window of Schawe & Weis hardware store and broke the glass.

Messrs. J. W. Duvall, John Keith, Frank Smith, Eugene Gentry, Chas. Mitchell and Emilie Ebrick started from Kansas City at 2:30 o'clock Saturday evening. The first five reached here about 8 o'clock that night, but Mr. Ebricke concluded when he reached Levassey that he had enough of it and rested there in the shade until time to take the west bound train for home. Four of the party left on the return trip at ten o'clock yesterday morning, but Mr. Duvall preferred the sunshine of the smiles of some of Lexington's fair daughters rather than the sunshine and dust of the road back to Kansas City and so he remained in our city until the evening train to Kansas City.

[From Tuesday's Daily.]

Mr. T. J. Gallivan left this morning for Sedalia.

Mrs. J. W. Bills left last night for a visit to her old home in Chicago.

Mrs. Gus Weber returned last night from a visit with relatives at Topeka.

Mrs. Sanford Thornton left this morning for Higginsville for a few days' visit.

Mr. Luther Crenshaw arrived from St. Louis this morning for a visit to his parents.

Miss Jean Meng returned yesterday evening from a visit with relatives at Higginsville.

Mr. George Callaway and two daughters left yesterday for Clarence, Mo., for a visit.

Mr. J. J. Rhodes and wife returned last night from Mr. Rhodes' old home at Colony, Kansas.

Misses Bessie and Nancy Wright, of Tonganoxie, Kas., arrived this morning for a visit to friends.

Mrs. D. C. Morris and children left yesterday evening for a visit with relatives at Gaylord, Kas.

Mrs. Bettie Spurr and Miss Addie Curtis returned this morning from a few days' visit at Higginsville.

Mr. Reed Ryland went to Kansas City yesterday for a brief visit with his brother, Rev. E. P. Ryland.

Mrs. D. Gwinner and three children arrived last night from Tipton to visit Mrs. Gwinner's parents for a while.

Mrs. David Callahan, who has been visiting friends here for the past ten days, returned to her home in Jefferson City today.

Messrs. Ed. Edwards and Reuben Walters left this morning for Excelsior Springs to visit Mr. John Edwards, who is there for his health.

DRESS WELL

There is nothing that makes a man feel better than the knowledge of being well dressed. When you have a suit made from the newest materials, just the style and a perfect fit you have this knowledge. Our suits have the style, fit and material; the quality and workmanship are guaranteed . . . .

Wittenberg The Tailor.

Over Ludwigs' Jewelry Store

Mrs. Emma Reeder returned last night from Kansas City, where she has been visiting relatives for the past two weeks.

Mr. J. R. Hedges, editor of the Buckner Star, and Mr. Alex Hedrick, of Buckner, spent yesterday in our city on business.

Mr. Baxter Lankford left yesterday evening for Chicago and from there he will go to Valparaiso, Ind., to attend school.

CORRESPONDENTS WANTED.—The INTELLIGENCER wants a correspondent in every town in Lafayette county. Write or particulars.

Miss Myrtle Terhune left this morning for Nevada for a ten days' visit with the family of ex-Sheriff John A. Fulkerson.

Miss Carrie Fulkerson, of Nevada, who has been visiting friends and relatives here for the past five weeks, returned home today.

Mr. Melville Smithers returned to his home in St. Louis this morning after a visit to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Stramecke.

Mr. M. T. Slusher and Mr. Leslie Slusher, his son, left yesterday evening for El Reno, where the latter will register for a claim.

Mrs. J. B. Elling arrived in our city yesterday evening, having been called here on account of the severe illness of Mr. Stewart Summers.

Justices of the peace and notaries public can be supplied with chattel mortgages at this office, at 5 cents per copy. All kinds of blanks printed to order. 11

Bryant Jones, of Kansas City, who has been visiting the family of his uncle, Mr. J. L. Marshall for several weeks, returned home yesterday evening.

A fine sorrel horse belonging to Mr. Pet Cole died from the heat this morning. It was one of the best horses Mr. Cole had and is a severe loss to him.

Messrs. Frank Howe, T. J. Duling and F. R. Davis left this morning for El Reno, Okla., via the Santa Fe. Mr. Davis expects to buy a town lot and reside there in the future.

Messrs. D. L. Mitchell, Henderson Young, Drew Crews and Emmet Dalley left this morning for El Reno, Okla., to try their luck in the drawing of the land to be opened up August 6. We hope they will all get good claims.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Musgrove returned this morning from Sweet Springs, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Martha Elizabeth Spurgeon. Mrs. Spurgeon was the mother of Edgar Spurgeon, a brother-in-law of Mr. Musgrove.

At a meeting of the school board last night the contract was let for a new school building. Mr. W. W. Schultz, of Carbondale, Kas., secured the contract for the building at $4,852, and Lewis & Kitcher, of Kansas City, Mo., the heating contract at $1,065.

Yesterday morning about two o'clock the barn of Mr. Will Tyree, who lives south of Mayview, was destroyed by fire. Mr. Tyree lost in the barn one fine stallion, two jacks, a pair of driving mares, fifty tons of hay, eighty barrels of corn and all his farm machinery.

The thermometer yesterday reached 111 degrees, two degrees hotter than any other day this season so far. This makes twenty-six days this summer that the thermometer has been 100 degrees and above. Such a long heated term with the thermometer so high was never known in this section before.

In an altercation yesterday evening over a crap game in the alley west of the "Fort" in East Lexington, Tim Holwell was struck on the head in the mixup and seriously hurt. Several arrests were made of those who were in the "scrap," but it was not known at first who it was that struck the blow that felled Holwell.

To Close Our Stock of Summer Woolens
we will give choice of 25
Suits formerly sold not less than $30.00
now at the uniform price of $20.00
made and trimmed equally as well as if you were paying full price. All Pants
formerly made to order from $6.00 to $7.50
now at the uniform price of $5.00
All pants that formerly sold from $8 to $12 now only $7.50
Philip Keller
Merchant Tailor